Tirant son nom des coteaux de vignes étincelant sous le soleil d'automne, la Côte d'Or est une terre d'immenses richesses. Au-delà du patrimoine culinaire connu et reconnu (notamment ses AOC), ce fut le théâtre de la reddition gauloise, et de la remise des armes de Vercingétorix à César, à Alésia, où aujourd'hui le vaste MuséoParc rend compte de tout le déroulement du siège de la ville. La Côte d'Or a aussi un important héritage de l'ère médiévale, en particulier ses abbayes cisterciennes. Pour les plus sportifs, de nombreux sentiers permettent de découvrir à pied ou à vélo les charmes de la campagne et des cours d'eaux du département, le long des vignobles.. 2017 2018 Texas High School Bass Association.
