"CrÃ¡ticas ""Crisp, funny and satirical"" (Guardian)""Clever, funny and thoughtful"" (Times Literary Supplement)""Both audacious and heartwarming"" (New Statesman)""An incisive look at an emotional issue"" (Mary Arrigan The Sunday Tribune) ReseÃ±a del editor 'What does he mean? What's going on? Are you two thinking of putting Granny into a Home?' 'Thinking is finished,' Natasha told him. 'It is decided.' The four children, Ivan, Sophie, Tanya and Nicholas, can't believe it. Their parents are planning to put their grandmother into a Home. She's a bit of a dotty old lady - sometimes demanding, often annoying - but as much a part of their lives as their shambly house or the whirring of the washing machine. So they decide to take action. They begin 'The Granny Project', with immediate and sensational results . . .
