"CrÁticas â€"A noisy book that celebrated the fun of charging around, while gently encouraging quiet, creative play. Full of the sort of detail children love; bright, exuberant pictures, short sentences, lots of repetition and whooping noises to imitate.â€™The Independentâ€"This stylised, multi-cultural picture book is filled with boundless energy and a sense of fun. The bold, colourful, alternative style of artwork will make this book leap off the shelf, with illustrations that fizz with energy and perfectly mirror the lively story. Perfect for children aged two to five.â€™The Malta Independent ReseÃ±a del editor Hurricane Kieron and Rusharound Ria are always in a hurry. They never walk anywhere. They always run!They go zzzzooommm, zigga zigga, yow, yow, yow, wheeeeeeee all day long!But when Hurricane Kieron falls over, he canâ€™t rush around any more. But with paints and brushes, can he find another way to make hurricanes instead? Even if it does involve sitting stillâ€"A delightful story about running around, sitting still, and the joys of both. BiografÃ­a del autor Trish Cooke has written seventeen books for children including So Much, which won the Kurt Maschler Award, the Nestle Smarties Book Prize and the She/WH Smith's Under Fives Book Prize. She was a presenter on the BBC's children's television programme Playdays for eight years. She has acted in and written plays for theatre, radio and television, both for children and adults.Trish lives in Bingley, West Yorkshire.Alex Ayliffe is a bestselling, award-winning writer and artist. Her distinctive papercut illustrations are bright and bold with lots of child appeal. Alex has illustrated many books for children, including Boo Barney, winner of the Sainsbury's Baby Book Award. She lives with her family in Hertfordshire.".
