Marc Chagall (born Moïche Zakharovitch Chagalov; 6 July 1887 – 28 March 1985) was a Russian-French artist of Belarusian Jewish origin, an early modernist. He was associated with several major artistic styles and created works in a wide range of artistic formats, including painting, drawings, book illustrations, stained glass, stage sets, ceramic tapestries, and fine art prints. Marc Chagall's work addresses these transforming events, but his ambivalence about his role as a Jewish artist adds an intriguing wrinkle to common assumptions about his life. Drawn to sacred subject matter, Chagall remains defiantly secular in outlook, determined to narrate the miraculous and tragic events of the Jewish past. He frequently chooses Jesus as a symbol of martyrdom and.
